HOME

A hug is more important than many words.
Nothing makes you feel more secure, of yourself and of those who love us.

I like deserted spaces,
silences,
the absence of distractions.

Only in this way is fantasy free to fly far.

Just

LET YOURSELF BE INSPIRED

Art must not be an exception: it must be around us every day, to surprise us with new unexpected emotions.

Functional solutions to achieve total freedom of composition, where a refined design keeps a close eye on the aesthetics of the new ways of inhabiting the kitchen space today and in the future.

— Kitchen handmade in Italy with hardwood walnut and high-quality materials. All the options are at the forefront and the surfaces are completely carved following the Classic lines. The stove top and the counter are in marble and each piece of furniture is decorated with gold leaf applications.

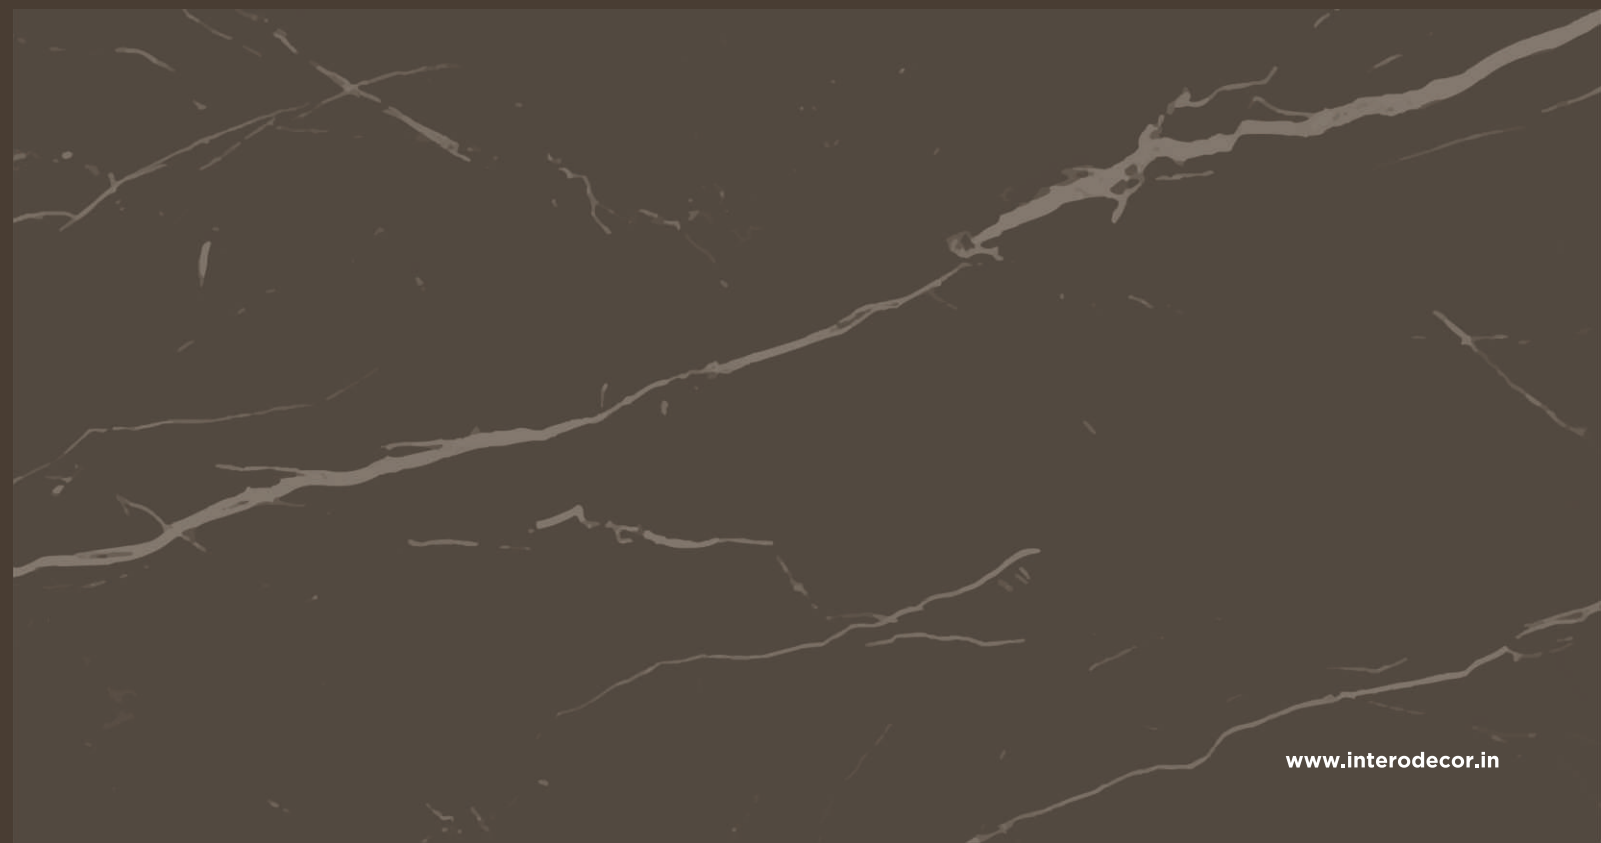

Time for

A New Perspective

Where do surprise guests and best friends like to meet best? Exactly: in the kitchen. Where bubbly and beer is on ice, and culinary delights are within arm's reach. Where the atmosphere is relaxed, and good conversation happens by itself. The world stays outside for a while and life shows itself from its best side. If these are not reason enough to let your kitchen become a real haven, well away from the hustle and bustle of everyday life.

Bright Prospects

Urban living with wow effect: light creates radiant islands that captivate the eye. And move collector's pieces into the focus with stunning effect. The cooking counter makes a nimble, light-footed entrance. Its legs almost make it appear to float. Pull-out shelves and the TakeAway system with the metal and glass boxes underscore the cooking island's workbench character. Open shelf units with wooden drawers score with casual charm. Doubling up as a multifunctional piece of furniture, the base unit also provides a place to sit. Picture-perfect: the doors with their black metal glazing bars bring out the authentic effect of the surface in King's Oak that creates warm and inviting feel with its natural aura. Practical aids, such as the bread drawer with glass cover and the spice organiser system make storing provisions easier.

Curves Show The Accuracy

This kitchen delivers a unique contemporary handleless kitchen design which has a naturally free flowing form. Opening is achieved by a groove on the leading edge of the extra thick 23mm front panel (base units) or by a vertical aluminium profile (tall units). Drawers in the curved units allow Interio Decor to offer this remarkable kitchen design without compromising the environment, ergonomics or functionality.

This type of kitchens has the perfect balance of taste, style and function, enhanced by original, sophisticated design features. The rounded-section door is its distinctive characteristic, and gives the kitchen a special, welcoming warmth.

Curved kitchens with island are the ideal solution in terms of looks and function. As well as a wider view and more freedom of movement, you'll have more space available for enjoying a kitchen rich in style and good taste.

When your kitchen is something that shapes the space and becomes the attraction of your home style, then you can say it's not just "interior design" but real "architecture". This is the reinterpretation of the curve line but in a contemporary urban mood, according to the curved collection.

Asymmetrical forms are another attractive interior design. As with the curved collection, created through geometrical use of the kitchen base units.
